Stem cells show promise for scar treatment

WHITNEY MCKNIGHT / FRONTLINE MEDICAL NEWS

Burn victims and others with traumatic scarring may no longer need skin grafted from one part of their body, thus adding new scars, to mend the deeper scars, Dr. Jill Waibel said at Summit in Aesthetic Medicine 2014. Scan the QR code or visit skinandallergynews.com to learn about how stem cells could help these patients.
